Download 27 ~ 'The Piss Pageant'

This audio cassette climaxes with the success of a hard working, girlie dance troupe who will tour the world, performing together for rich customers in a special all singing, all dancing 'piss show' with full lavish costumes and musical splendour. The six part story starts with the auditioning of the hopefuls, 40 in all, who have all come along in response to an advert for what they think is a normal dancing audition. The advert also says that all girls must turn up with a full bladder. The director keeps them hanging around for ages and a lot of the girls piss themselves before anything actually gets going. Then the choreographer does her business on them and a lot more girls, who have been pushing their bladders to the absolute limits, fail miserably and piss themselves there and then on the audition floor. As well as being humorous in places, it is also extremely well read by our Sal and becomes interesting and erotic as well as entertaining. There are full descriptions of the girls, their attire and the state of their over stretched bladders and by the way the series is read, it forms easily in the mind. It ends with the show's finale being accepted by the hard to please world famous producer.

Most of the pees are 30 seconds or more in length and there's some brilliant shushing fanny noises where it's forced out. The tape is 30 minutes long, no dialogue, just piss after piss - a real wanker's companion!
